Waiver & Release

Assumption of Liability

Escape the Crate, and all Guardians who trust us with the care of their dogs, rely on your honesty and full disclosure of any and all past and current health, behavior, safety or other factors that may affect your dog's eligibility for daycare or boarding. Failure to fully disclose any issue past, current or future issue may spread disease and infestations or cause injury to dogs, employees and guests. Even if the information that you provided on the Interview Information packet is complete and true to the best of your knowledge, dogs often respond differently to new people, dogs, situations, and environments. By signing this Waiver and Release, you assume full responsibility for your dog's behavior and assume full responsibility to Escape the Crate and our Guardian clients for all damages and injuries to property, dogs, and persons caused by your dog(s).

Assumption of Risk

As a dog owner, I understand and acknowledge that there is an inherent risk of accident or injury to my dog, other dogs or persons associated with group dog play. I understand that, even in the most controlled and well supervised circumstance, there may be daycare incidents and unpredictable behavior that could result in injury to my dog. My dog might contract an infection or illness from close contact with another dog. After considering these factors, I have decided that the risk associated with placing my dog(s) in a group setting with other dogs is outweighed by the benefits of socialization, exercise and stimulation derived by my dog(s). Therefore, I expressly and voluntarily assume all risk of injury suffered by me, my employees, agents, third parties, and my dog(s) during a stay at Escape the Crate.

I acknowledge that I have carefully read this Waiver & Release, understand it's contents and understand that this agreement includes an assumption of risk of Escape the Crate's liability. I acknowledge that Escape the Crate is materially relying on this waiver and is allowing my dog(s) to engage in play with other dogs, and if boarding, to stay in the Escape the Crate overnight care facility.

By signing this Waiver & Release, I authorize Escape the Crate to take my dog(s) to a Veterinary Hospital if my dog has any illness or is injured in any way during daycare or boarding.

I also understand that Escape the Crate is NOT responsible for any items of mine or my dog(s) that are lost while staying at Escape the Crate.

Boarding Checklist

Escape the Crate boarding services include a full day of daycare, before your pet is tucked into bed. Overnight guests are served their meals (breakfast / lunch / dinner) with food you provide from home. Before lights are out, each guest gets a treat of their own, before we say good night.

WHAT TO BRING.....

- > Food from home: let us know how much they eat and how often during drop-off (pre measured or all in a container).
- > Bedding / blankets / crate from home: makes them feel more at home.
- > Favorite toys: these will go and stay in their kennel.
- > Treats for the evening: to ensure a relaxing transition to sleep.
- > Any medication: if needed, we can give your dog their medication during their stay.

Your dog's activity level will be heightened during their stay with us. Depending on the breed of your dog, you may want to consider an increase in their normal feeding plan. Keep in mind, they will be in the playgroup for up to 8 hours a day, socializing and playing. Sometimes that results in a very tired and hungry guest at the end of their fun day. We want everyone to be comfortable in every way while they are vacationing here at Escape the Crate!
